What Did You Do Yesterday?

Teacher: Hi Alex, how are you today?

Alex: I'm fine, thank you. How are you?

Teacher: I'm great, thanks. So, what did you do yesterday?

Alex: I watched TV and played football with my friends.

Teacher: That sounds like fun. Can you repeat after me: I watched TV yesterday.

Alex: I watched TV yesterday.

Teacher: Great job! Now, say: I played football yesterday.

Alex: I played football yesterday.

Teacher: Excellent! What time did you start playing football?

Alex: We started at 3 pm and played until 5 pm.

Teacher: Okay, so you started playing football at 3 pm. Can you say: I started playing football at 3 pm yesterday?

Alex: I started playing football at 3 pm yesterday.

Teacher: Good! Did you help your mom with anything yesterday?

Alex: Yes, I helped my mom with the cleaning.

Teacher: That's very helpful of you. Say: I helped my mom clean the house yesterday.

Alex: I helped my mom clean the house yesterday.

Teacher: Now, let's talk about what you wanted to do yesterday. What did you want to do?

Alex: I wanted to go to the park, but it was raining.

Teacher: Okay, so you wanted to go to the park. Can you say: I wanted to go to the park yesterday, but it was raining.

Alex: I wanted to go to the park yesterday, but it was raining.

Teacher: Great! Did you need anything yesterday?

Alex: Yes, I needed a new book, so I went to the bookstore.

Teacher: Okay, so you needed a new book. Say: I needed a new book, so I went to the bookstore yesterday.

Alex: I needed a new book, so I went to the bookstore yesterday.

Teacher: Excellent! What did you do after you came back from the bookstore?

Alex: I washed my hands and then I lived in my room for a while, I mean, I stayed in my room for a while.

Teacher: I think you mean you stayed in your room. Say: I stayed in my room for a while after I came back from the bookstore yesterday.

Alex: I stayed in my room for a while after I came back from the bookstore yesterday.

Teacher: Good job! Did you call anyone yesterday?

Alex: Yes, I called my friend to ask about the football game.

Teacher: Okay, so you called your friend. Can you say: I called my friend yesterday to ask about the football game.

Alex: I called my friend yesterday to ask about the football game.

Teacher: Great! It was nice talking to you, Alex.
