

Integrated Skills: Reading to Speaking

Title: _____

Date: _____

Student's name: _____

School Objects: Using 'A' and 'An'

Teacher: Good morning, Leo! Welcome to school.

Leo: Good morning, Teacher!

Teacher: How are you today?

Leo: I am good, thank you.

Teacher: Great! Let's look around. What is this? (points to Leo's bag)

Leo: It is a backpack.

Teacher: Yes, it is a backpack. What do you have in your backpack?

Leo: I have a book. And a pencil. And a notebook.

Teacher: Very good! You have a pencil. And what is this small thing? (points to an eraser)

Leo: It is an eraser.

Teacher: Correct! It is an eraser. Do you have a snack for lunch today?

Leo: Yes, I have an apple. And a banana.

Teacher: Yummy! Healthy snacks. Look outside the window. Do you see an animal?

Leo: Yes, I see a small bird and a tall tree.

Teacher: Nice! Now, let's look inside our classroom. What do you see?

Leo: I see a table. And a chair.

Teacher: Good. Do you see a window?

Leo: Yes, I see a window. And a door.

Teacher: Excellent! On the wall, there is a big clock.

Leo: Oh, yes! A clock and a picture. It is a drawing of a cat.

Teacher: That's right. Do you see a whiteboard?

Leo: Yes, I see a whiteboard. And a marker.

Teacher: Good job, Leo! Do you see a teacher's desk?

Leo: Yes, I see a teacher's desk. And a computer on it.

Teacher: Very observant! It is a computer. Next to it, a green plant.

Leo: Wow! A plant and a colorful poster.

Teacher: Yes, an animal poster. Do you see a school bus outside?

Leo: No, I don't see a school bus. But I see a red car.

Teacher: Okay. Do you see a friend? Is there a student?

Leo: Yes, I see a student. He has a blue shirt.

Teacher: Great! You are a good observer, Leo.

Leo: Thank you, Teacher!